

MUSIC

Philip Aaberg

As a composer, Montanan, Philip Aaberg, a world-class keyboardist, writes music that puts the listener smack in the New American West with all its bittersweet complexity.

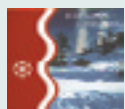

Blue West

from the liner notes: "This is a blues record... maybe not a 'pure' blues record by some definitions or store labels, but it's MY blue record... a Montana blues record. I hope you smell sagebrush, see the Big Sky, hear the train, and feel the river... before you sit down in your nearest friendly roadhouse to listen to the piano picker." Philip Aaberg. CD $20.95

Live from Montana

Recorded live in the Chester High School Auditorium, MONTANA!! The latest evolution of these favorite piano pieces, with concert commentary from Phil and liner notes by George Winston. CD $20.95

Christmas

Here are new versions of some of Aaberg's compositions from the Windham Hill Winter Solstice Tours of the 1980s and 1990's, as well as new tunes and creative arrangements of traditional carols and hymns. CD $20.95

Rob Quist

Rob is recognized as one of the West's best known songwriters, composers and main stage performers.

Honor Bound

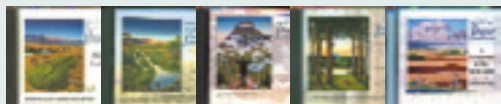

Honor Bound includes such favorites as Horse Whisperer, the Big Deep Freeze, Girl with Eyes of Green and Honor Bound, co-written with Michael Martin Murphy. CD $20.95

Montana Summer Symphony

Recorded live on the Carroll College campus in Helena, these two-hour concerts present the region's largest outdoor summer symphony concert with over 100 musicians and seven conductors reflecting the splendor and spirit of Montana. The music blends the history and romance of the West from well-remembered symphonic music. Selections from western movies and traditional compositions.

CD cover images designed by Montana artist, Monte Dolack.

CD - 1998 through 2002 - $10.95 each (please specify year desired)

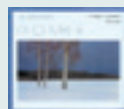

George Winston

Montana

A Love Story

A beautiful collection of original compositions, traditional songs and music from a variety of well-known songwriters including Philip Aaberg, Frank Zappa, Sam Cooke among others. George has combined the three distinct influential elements of the changing of the seasons, different topographies, and sociological influences into a single work that evokes a familiar image. CD $20.99

December 20th Anniversary Edition

This album is a tribute to the winter season, and has been his most popular. This 20th Anniversary Edition of includes two new bonus tracks, and the sheet music to Variations on the Canon by Pachelbel on an enhanced disc, which you can print out on your computer. CD $20.99

Bruce Anfinson

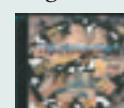

With the state's natural wonders and rich cultural heritage portrayed so well in his songs, Bruce is called "Montana's Musical Ambassador".

Home is Where Montana Is

Contains the theme song from the Backroads of Montana videos by Montana PBS. CD $20.95

High Mountain Singers

Traditional Blackfeet Music

produced by Jack Gladstone

An all-star drumming group from the Blackfeet Reservation in northern Montana, they strive to carry on the musical tradition of the Amskapi Pikuni (Southern Piegan) to all who listen. CD $20.95

Earthpassage

Music that "sings of the land", music that reflects and clarifies the experience of the landscapes that make up the world based on experiences, influences, and travels.

Quiet Paths

Journeys through the Forest

Celtic harp and piano are joined by cello, alto recorder, Irish flute, guitar and harmonium to weave a gentle tapestry of sound that conjures the mystery and beauty of the northern forests. CD $18.95

Montana Mandolin Society

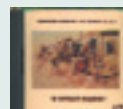

Features performers on mandolins, mandolas, octave mandolins, classical guitars, violin, banjo, hammer dulcimer, bass, and cello, playing classical, jazz, celtic, blues and more.

Mosaic

A mosaic of contemporary and traditional tunes from all around the world. Includes original pieces by Society members. CD $20.95

Mission Mountain Wood Band

This is the only recording currently available from Montana's Legendary Mission Mountain Wood Band, who swept the musical scene in the 70's garnering national acclaim. CD $20.95

Jack Gladstone

Jack is masterful at blending legend, history and metaphor into song while providing an alternative perspective of humanism, with reverence and concern for the world and all the living beings within it.

Tappin' The Earth's Backbone

by Jack Gladstone

This is a CD whose stories spring from the east slope of the Rockies, in and adjacent to Glacier/Waterton International Peace Park. Included are six new songs, two remakes of "classic" Gladstone, and a traditional Blackfeet drumming song. CD $20.95

VIDEO / DVD

Assiniboine Chief Rosebud Remembers Lewis & Clark

The Corps of Discovery spent 29 days and nights traveling through traditional Nakoda or Assiniboine hunting territory. This is the story, as told through the generations of those who remembered the excitement, of the Nakoda hunters nearly running into the first white expedition hunters they'd ever seen. 30 minutes, VHS video or DVD $24.95
see companion 2006 calendar on page 5

Evelyn Cameron: Pictures From A Worthy Life

produced by John Twiggs for KUFM/MontanaPBS, University of Montana Missoula

Cameron left a life of privilege in England and found a sense of peace on the eastern Montana prairie. With an independent spirit, she started her own photography business and left behind a legacy of photographs and diary writings providing an intimate portrait of pioneer life barely seen.

VHS video or DVD - CALL FOR PRICE
Available December 2005

Mission Mountain Wood Band Collector's Edition CD/DVD set

Includes: 75 songs from the archives, Aber Day kegger footage, TV performances, Live concert footage, interviews w/the band.

5 CDs and 1 DVD, $124.95

K Ross Toole's Montana

As has no other Montana historian, K. Ross Toole's last lectures, "Montana and the West," championed the state against perceived threats to its past, its present, and its future.

Video - Full set - 20 lectures, 10 hours

5 two-hour VHS tapes - $142.95

5 two-hour DVDs - $153.95

Video - Special Edition - selected lectures, 10 hours

2 two-hour VHS tapes - $56.95

2 two-hour DVDs - $63.95

Audio cassettes 20 lectures, ten 1-hour tapes $79.95

Backroads of Montana

Since the debut of the program in May 1991, the Backroads crew has produced twenty-three half-hour episodes that air regularly on MontanaPBS. The series travels across the state to visit the unique people and places of Montana.

Best of Volume III - This special volume consists of the third four episodes of the Backroads series: Amber Waves of Grain, Wool and Wind, Pancakes and Polo, Music and Memories

120 minutes, VHS Video or DVD $25.00
(please specify)

Also available:

Best of Volume II - 120 minutes VHS video $25.00

Best of Volume I - 120 minutes VHS video $25.00

Remembering the Columbia Gardens produced by Montana PBS/University of Montana

Using historical photographs, rare home movies and first hand accounts, the history and myth of the beloved amusement park built by Copper King William Clark is recreated. The park operated from 1899 to 1973. 60 minutes, VHS video $19.95

